CHARGING ALLEGATIONS

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Civil Rights: 42 United States Code § 1983: RIGHT TO DUE PROCESS OF LAW; FIFTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS)

[By Plaintiffs against Defendants OFFICER LESTER LOPEZ and ANNETTE
RENTERIA]

11. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereafter.

12. On August 6, 2016, at the Western Union located at 4481 Hollywood
Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90027, plaintiff YOLANDA VILLASENOR, was attempting to cash her Disability Insurance check when she was falsely accused of cashing a fraudulent check.

13. The Los Angeles Police department was called and Officers Lester Lopez and Annette Renteria responded to the call.

14. Plaintiff was racially profiled and despite showing proof her actions were legal she was harassed, threatened discriminated and arrested.

15. At the time of the arrest Plaintiff was 41 weeks pregnant and under doctor's care.

16. Despite being clearly pregnant and unable to perform simple body maneuvers Plaintiff was treated as a criminal, humiliated, embarrassed, scolded, threatened and placed in handcuffs.

17. The handcuffs were wrongfully placed behind Plaintiff's back causing great pain and stress to her body. Plaintiff was in tears and in pain and repeatedly asked why she was being arrested. It was clear Plaintiff was being discriminated

1 and racially profiled as the police officers had no justification for the arrest and the
2 subsequent harsh and excessive force.

3 18. While being questioned regarding her disability check, Plaintiff
4 repeatedly provided enough information, clearly showing her check was not
5 fraudulent. However, because of the racial profiling and discrimination against 6 plaintiff she was treated unfairly, singled out and arrested.

7
8 19. At almost 41 weeks pregnant, VILLASENOR spent approximately a day
9 and night in jail suffering great pain, torture and labor pains. Plaintiff was without 10 water, adequate nutrition and no medical care despite repeated complaints for help.

11 20. When VILLASENOR was able to post bail, she was taken to the 12 hospital where she began to experience contractions, and immediately gave birth
13 thereafter.

14 21. Commencing at or about the aforementioned date and place. Defendants
15 LOPEZ and RENTERIA, intentionally and maliciously seized plaintiff
16 VILLASENOR causing her physical pain, harm, and possibly harm to "OT".
17 Plaintiff VILLASENOR was unlawfully seized by Defendants LOPEZ and 18 RENTERIA without warrant or order of commitment, or any other legal authority
19 of any kind as VILLASENOR had not committed any crime or public offense 20 prior..

22 22. The arrest for "ID theft" was an unlawful arrest followed by 24-30
23 hours of false imprisonment, and continued emotional distress wondering if baby
24 "OT" suffered latent injuries yet to be uncovered.

25 23. Ms. VILLASENOR had a constitutional right to be free from excessive 26 force, false arrest, imprisonment, discrimination and racial profiling. Plaintiff also,

27
28

1 at the time of arrest and to this day, has a right medical care and treatment to which
2 she was refused, causing a deliberate indifference to her medical needs.

3 24. Each of the individual defendants acted in concert, acted without 4 authorization of law, and each of the individual defendants, separately and in
5 concert, acted willfully, knowingly and with reckless disregard and deliberate
6 indifference to the known consequences of their acts and omissions and 7 purposefully with the intent to deprive Plaintiff VILLASENOR and "OT" of their 8 federally protected rights and privileges and did, in fact, violate those rights and 9 privileges, entitling plaintiffs to punitive damages in an amount to be proven at 10 trial.

11 25. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned acts, omissions,
12 customs and practices of the defendants. Plaintiff VILLASENOR has suffered
13 great mental and physical pain, suffering, anguish, fright, nervousness, anxiety,
14 grief, shock, humiliation, indignity, embarrassment and apprehension, all to her
15 damage in a sum to be determined at trial.

16 26. As a proximate result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, and 17 each of them, plaintiffs sustained severe emotional injuries and require emotional
18 treatment, and have incurred and will continue to incur medical expenses for said
19 therapy in an amount according to proof at trial.

20 27. The aforementioned acts and omissions of Defendants were committed 21 by each of them knowingly, willfully and maliciously, with the intent to harm,
22 injure, vex, harass and oppress Plaintiffs with conscious disregard of Plaintiffs'
23 constitutional rights and by reason thereof, plaintiffs seek punitive and exemplary
24 damages from Defendants, and each of them, in an amount to be proven at trial.
25
26
27
28

1 28. Defendants, their employees and agents, owed Plaintiff a duty under the
2 due process clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S.
3 Constitution to protect the freedom and liberty from false imprisonment.

4 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION;

5 MONELL ALLEGATIONS

6
7 (Against Defendant CITY and DOES 3-5, INCLUSIVE)

8 29. Plaintiffs restate and incorporate by reference, as though fully set forth
9 herein, the allegations contained in paragraphs above.

10
11 30. Defendant CITY, failed to properly train its officers LOPEZ, and 12 RENTERIA, causing the wrongful arrest of Plaintiff VILLASENOR. Plaintiff was 13 arrested, and booked without having enough evidence of a crime being committed.
14 Consequently putting Plaintiff VILLASENOR and "OT" at risk.

15 31. Defendant CITY, failed to provide efficient and proper training to its 16 officers LOPEZ and RENTERIA, whom failed to read Miranda rights to Plaintiff.

17 32. Defendant CITY, failed to provide proper training to its officers LOPEZ
18 and RENTERIA on how to properly restrain a pregnant woman. As Plaintiff
19 VILLASENOR was handcuffed through her back, even though she was almost 41
20 weeks pregnant, putting "OT" at risk.

21
22 33. Plaintiffs assert that it was and still is the policy and/ or custom of the 23 CITY to inadequately supervise and train its officers, including the defendant
24 officers, thereby failing to discourage further unconstitutional violations on the part 25 of their officers. The CITY did not require appropriate in-service training or 26 retraining of officers, who were known to have engaged in police misconduct.

35. The above-mentioned policies and customs demonstrate a deliberate indifference on the part of policymakers of the CITY to the constitutional rights of persons within the CITY, and were the cause of the violations of the plaintiff's rights alleged herein.

36. Each of the acts complained of herein was taken, and each violation of plaintiff's rights occurred pursuant to the policies, practices and/ or customs of the LOS ANGELES POLICE DEPARTMENT, each act complained of was approved, condoned and/ or ratified by persons of authority with the defendant CITY.

37. In committing each of the violations of law complained of herein, defendants, their agents and employees, were acting under color of law. The acts complained of were willful, wanton, malicious and displayed a conscious disregard of, and in deliberate indifference to plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

15 conspired for the purpose of:

- 16 (i) depriving Plaintiffs of (a) equal protection of the law; and (b) equal
